

Grebes, wading birds, loons and sea ducks may be seen from beach areas.

Red-necked Grebe

Residential Area

Swan Lake

Watershed and estuarine wetland

Shorebirds use lake when water level is sufficiently low.

Marsh Wren

Joseph Whidbey State Park

Crosby Road

Swantown Road

Common Yellowthroat, male

Northern Harrier, male

Red-winged Blackbird, male

Bird & Wildlife Viewing Areas

- 1. West Beach Vista: Parking and interpretive signage. Elevated beach, sound and lake views.
- 2. North End of Dike: Small area provides a closer look at Swan Lake. Access by road shoulder from parking areas. Use extreme caution. No parking along West Beach Road.
- 3. Beach Access: Parking near beach and trail.
- 4. State Park Entrance: Trail system and park facilities. Use alternate parking (points 3 & 5) during late fall-winter State Park closure.
- 5. Alternate Park Access: Parking and trails.

Please visit Craig & Joy's website:

www.pugetsoundbackyardbirds.com

Printed using soy inks on FSC paper.
Photographs by Craig Johnson

Northern Pintails, male & female

Swan Lake Area

Whidbey Island

Whidbey Island Naval Air Station

5

Crosby Road

3

West Beach Road

2

W. Beach Rd.

1